

PROMISES, PROMISES!™

THE EXPERIENCE

As newly elected politicians representing one of 10 countries, participants must fulfill the promises they made to their constituents, no matter how outrageous! Operating in an environment of scandal, intrigue, fun and politics, participants grapple with the needs of their constituents and neighbouring countries and wade through cultural barriers, lack of trust and poor communication to meet their goals. Alliances are created, abandoned and reformed but before the end of the five-year term, all countries have become a truly United League of Nations.
